

I am in complete support for the government to have the same surveillance capabilities through digital means as were available through analog means.